while earning your MBA at Wharton.

Introducing the Hindi Program at the Lauder Institute:

- Earn two degrees (MBA & MA in International Studies) in a 24-month period.
- Participate in a two-month summer immersion program in India, featuring intensive Hindi language instruction and exposure to a diverse array of Indian businesses and economic and cultural themes.
- Take four additional semesters of Hindi language and culture courses and opt for elective courses on South Asia.
- Engage in a practical, hands-on, team-based, and individual research project on Indian business or culture.
- Benefit from the School of Arts & Sciences' long-standing strength in South Asian Studies and Penn's extensive relationships with institutions in India.
- Fully participate in the world-class Wharton MBA Program.

We also offer specializations in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Japanese, Portuguese, Russian, and Spanish.
